SUMMER ACTIVITIES AVAILABLE CHECK IT OUT

PAS does not hold membership meetings during the months of May through August, but there are always activities of interest available for PAS members. Here are a few things that are going on during May and June that you might like to enjoy.

> MAY 28: ARCADIA MILL ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITE will host a FREE Arts and Crafts activity for children on Saturday, May 28 from 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Children will make their own Uncle Sam mask. All materials will be provided. Each activity is estimated to be completed in 30 minutes. All participants must be accompanied by a parent, legal guardian, or adult. For more information, contact Arcadia Mill staff at 626-3084 or arcadiamill@uwf.edu. Even if you cannot make this activity, remember that Arcadia Mill Archaeological Site and museum are open to the public for tours. This site is near Milton and offers a lot about the local history of the area. See the website for more info.

> Opening May 21 through August 15 at the Indian Temple Mound Museum in Ft. Walton Beach, Exhibit Obscured by Time: The Magic of Florida. Artist Hermann Trappman exhibit. Admission. See info p. 3.

> June 4, 10 am to 4 pm - Historic Pensacola Village and museums Annual Open House. FREE. They are also celelearn about local history. PAS volunteers are needed for two 3 hours shifts. Contact Barbara Wright, baw13@bellsouth.net

> UWF FIELD LAB—Interested in helping in the lab? UWF is offering a field lab this summer during June and July. For more info see page. 2. Reservations are required. Call 474-2087.

> Looking for a short summer trip? There are several museums in Mobile that are well worth the hour's drive. Visit the Archaeology Museum at the University of South Alabama. See the web site for more info, directions and hours of operation. The Gulf Coast Maritime Museum is also available. Use their website to plan your trip.

> Keep up with field school 2016 excavations at the Luna Settlement site, Arcadia Mill Archaeological site, the Emanuel Point II shipwreck excavations and other underwater activities up the Blackwater River through the websites and blogs.

We hope to see you at some of these activities.

2016 FAS ANNUAL MEETING IN JUPITER MAY 19-22

By the time you read this, a number of UWF faculty, staff and grad students are on their way to the 68th Annual Meeting of the Florida Anthropological Society in Jupiter, Florida from May 19-22. Palm Beach County Archaeological Society (PBCAS) is hosting this year's meeting at the Wyndham Grand Harbourside overlooking the scenic Intracoastal Waterway. The FAS annual meeting will be held at noon on Friday. The Friday evening reception in Dubois Park is sponsored by the Florida Archaeological Council.

Papers and posters will be presented all day Saturday at the Wyndham. The banquet Saturday evening will be held at the Jupiter Lighthouse. Tours of the lighthouse and museum will be available during the evening. The Key Note Speaker for the banquet is Palm Beach County Archaeologist and Historic Preservation Officer Christian Davenport who has made incredible discoveries and advances in our understanding of the archaeology and prehistory of Southeast Florida.

Attendees will have a variety of unique guided tours hosted by area archaeologists and specialists. These choices included a tour of Big Mound Key, a boat ride on the Loxahatchee River and a visit to the Art Calusa exhibit.

OBSCURED BY TIME: THE MAGIC OF FLORIDA

EXHIBIT IN FT. WALTON BEACH FOR SUMMER

Heritage Park and Cultural Center is presenting an exhibit of artist, story teller and native of Florida, Hermann Trappman for summer 2016. The exhibit will be at the Indian Temple Mound Museum from May 21 through August 15 during regular museum hours. Obscured by Time offers a glimpse of early Florida from Paleoindian mammoth hunters to the earliest city dwellers to the cultures impacted by Spanish conquistadors in the 16th century. The exhibition is offered to the public as part of the admission price to the Heritage Park and Culture Center complex. The complex is at 139 Miracle Strip Parkway SE, Ft. Walton Beach, FL 32548. For more information call 850-833-9595
