NEW MEETING PLACE FOR 2013-14 PROGRAMS

Garden Archaeology in the Colonial Fort of Pensacola:

2012 Excavations at the Governor's Garden

One more reminder: PAS membership meetings during the 2013-2014 year will be held at the WEST FLORIDA PUBLIC LIBRARY in downtown Pensacola. About 60 people attended the Sept. meeting and there was plenty of room for more!

The Governor's Garden project focused on locating mapped colonial gardens associated with the Governor's compound in First Spanish San Miguel de Panzacola (1754-1763) and the British Fort of Pensacola (1763-1781). Construction for an outbuilding in the Historic Pensacola Village gave archaeologists from UWF the opportunity to examine study the remains of colonial gardens in an archaeologically rich urban environment.

April Holmes, Archaeology Institute staff, is the speaker for the Oct. membership meeting. She shared some information about the Governor's Garden area at our May special event. After analyzing the results of the lab work and writing the report, she can tell us a lot can more about the results of the excavation.

Student Award grants for Oct. will be presented Oct. 8. to Jackie Rodgers & Andrew Derlikowski.

Join us Oct. 8, 7 PM at the West Florida Public Library, 239 N Spring Street, to take the garden tour.

NEW WEBSITE FOR PAS

A JOURNEY ALONG THE PATHWAY OF SOULS:

A Native American View of the Night Sky

PAS member Cindy Sommerkamp will make a special presentation at the Pensacola State College Planetarium at 7 PM on Sept. 19th. With a background in iconography, Cindy began her graduate work under the late Mayan scholar Linda Schele at Texas. Years later in the UWF Anthropology program, she applied the "Southwest School" interpretative methods to Pensacola culture ceramics from Mississippian cemetery sites. Since earning her MA in 2008, Cindy has continued her research at the Archaeology Institute, revealing some unexpected symbolic references to Native American constellations. This Viva Florida! 500 presentation is free and open to the public but seating is limited.

Cindy will present this research in more depth as a PAS membership meeting program Wednesday, Nov. 13. Our new meeting place, West Florida Regional Library, had a previous reservation for the 2nd Tuesday in November so THE PAS MEETING IN NOVEMBER WILL BE ON WEDNESDAY NOV. 13TH. Please mark this on your calendar so you don't miss this presentation.
