Cont'd from p.1 2024 EXCAVATIONS AND PLANS FOR 2025

Dr. John Worth, Dr. Ramie Gougeon and Dr. John Bratten, archaeologists at UWF, will discuss results of recent field work, including excavations on EPIII, the third shipwreck of Luna's 1559 settlement in Pensacola. Lab work has revealed some interesting information and identified some amazing artifacts. They will also discuss plans for archaeological field work in 2025.

PAS LECTURE SERIES MEETING LOCATION

PAS Lecture Series membership meetings are held from 7-8 pm on the second Tuesday of the month (except summer) in the Activities Building (Choir Room) at TRINITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH at 3400 Bayou Blvd., Pensacola, FL 32503 www.trinitypcola.org.

Entry to the Choir Room for PAS meetings will be through the "back door" under the covered entrance. The meeting begins at 7 PM. This door will be unlocked ONLY from 6:30 to 7:30 PM for security reasons. No pre-registration is required for the lectures. Visit our website at www.pasfl.org or visit us on Facebook for more information.

The Board of Directors for PAS meets at 5:30 PM before the membership meeting each month. If you are interested in attending or making suggestions for programs or other activities, please contact PAS President, Barbara Wright, baw13@bellsouth.net

HAVE YOU PAID YOUR 2025 DUES?

The PAS year begins in January each year. If you are new to PAS this fall and you paid dues in August 2024 or later, you are good through 2025. This applies to renewals, too. Use PayPal on our website or mail a check to the PO box.

Pensacola Archaeological Society
PO Box 13251

Dues are $6 for Students, $15 for Individuals, $20 for Family and $200 for Life Membership. Check with Jan at the meeting if you have a question about your membership status.

MARCH IS FLORIDA ARCHAEOLOGY MONTH

Every year during Archaeology Month, we look for ways to celebrate our past and think about ways to preserve it for our future. This year there are several events in our area that will help you learn, share and preserve our heritage. The Florida Public Archaeology Network throughout Florida is very active in presenting tours, lectures, information sessions and displays in their local museum that help us identify, understand and preserve our heritage from over 10,000 years ago until the present. Check our their calendar: <https://www.fpan.us/regions/northwest/events/> There are several museums in or within an hour of Pensacola that may be of interest to you: Archaeology Museum University of South Alabama in Mobile, Indian Temple Mound Museum in Ft Walton, Pensacola Lighthouse & Maritime Museum, Historic Pensacola Village and the Pensacola Museum of History, Jay Historical Society Museum. Check on line for hours of operation.

FPAN Public Archaeology Lab
OPEN ON MONDAYS FROM 10 A.M. TO 4 P.M.

See the FPAN NW Events for a detailed list of open lab dates & other activities.

FPAN is seeking enthusiastic volunteers of all ages to help rough sort artifacts recovered from local archaeological sites! Our volunteer program is perfect for students who need volunteer hours for scholarships, individuals and groups interested in a unique way to experience local history and archaeology, as well as all of those who have dreamed of getting their hands dirty by participating in real archaeological work. All ages are welcome; however, anyone under 16 years of age must be accompanied by an adult. Individuals, families and groups as large as 12 can be accommodated.

RESERVATIONS ARE REQUIRED SINCE SEATING IS LIMITED.

For more information email northwest@fpan.us to RSVP. Volunteers are not required to commit to more than one day at a time and can stay for as little or as long as desired during open days.

2025 Free Spring Lecture Series

2025

March 11 "UWF Archaeological Field School 2024 and 2025" Faculty from UWF, Dept. of Anthropology will present some results of recent fieldwork, including new excavations of EPIII, the third shipwreck of Tristan de Luna's 1559 settlement of Pensacola. Conservation of materials from EPIII has resulted in exciting new discoveries. The three archaeologists will also discuss plans for archaeological fieldwork in 2025.

Dr. John Worth, Professor, Dr. John Bratten, Professor, and Dr. Ramie Gougeon, Professor and Anthropology Dept. Chair, UWF

April 8 "UWF Archaeology Institute Update on Downtown Archaeological Research" Archaeological evidence of the colonial forts of First Spanish San Miguel and the British Fort of Pensacola, the Second Spanish Government District, and the colonial and early American town have been documented across downtown. Recent research continues to derive meaningful information from our shared cultural resources in a constantly developing urban environment.
