The Rise and Fall of Old St. Andrews and the Birth of Panama City: Historical Archaeology in Bay County, Florida

Dr. Jason Wenzel will provide an overview of archaeological research in Bay County from 2015-2025.

Dr. Jason Wenzel, professor at Gulf Coast State College in Panama City, former Florida Anthropological Society president, and founder of the new FAS chapter, Bay Anthropological Society.

PAS HOLIDAY CELEBRATION

Again this year we will spread a little holiday cheer by sharing some of our favorite holiday food with the group. Since we don't have any tables and you will be holding your food, please bring food that does not require utensils. We have plates, napkins and cups.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

PAS Lecture meetings will be held from 7-8 pm in the Activities Building (Choir Room) at TRINITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH at 3400 Bayou Blvd., Pensacola, FL 32503 www.trinitypcola.org. Entry to the Choir Room for PAS meetings will be through the back door under the covered entrance. The meeting begins at 7 PM. This door will be unlocked ONLY from 6:30 to 7:30 PM. No pre-registration is required.

FLORIDA ANTHROPOLOGICAL SOCIETY

PAS is a chapter of the Florida Anthropological Society. FAS embraces and encourages the study of Florida from ancient times to the present. The chapters of FAS bring attention to the ongoing need for preservation of archaeological and historical sites. Through special events, chapter meetings, speaker presentations, public education programs, The Florida Anthropologist - the professional publication of FAS, we educate the public about the people, places and cultures of the past in Florida.

FPAN Public Archaeology Lab
OPEN ON MONDAYS FROM 10 A.M. TO 4 P.M.
FPAN COORDINATING CENTER, 207 E. MAIN STREET,
PENSACOLA, FL 32503

VOLUNTEER LAB WORK ENDS DEC. 1

FPAN is seeking enthusiastic volunteers of all ages to help rough sort artifacts recovered from local archaeological sites! All ages are welcome; however, anyone under 16 years of age must be accompanied by an adult. Individuals, families and groups as large as 12 can be accommodated.

RESERVATIONS REQUIRED SINCE SEATING IS LIMITED.

For more information email northwest@fpan.us to RSVP. Volunteers are not required to commit to more than one day at a time and can stay for as little or as long as desired during open days.

LAB WORK WILL RESUME IN JANUARY. Follow FPAN on Facebook for updates. See the FPAN NW Events for a detailed list of other activities and when the lab will close for semester break.

Interested in volunteering for other projects? Check out the Heritage Monitoring Scouts program! Volunteers observe the conditions at archaeological sites on the Gulf coast. Many sites are washing away as sea levels rise.
